

BELIEVED FARRAR HAS LEFT COUNTRY

Disgraced Minister Is Said to Be Coming to Canada.

London, November 23.—It is reported here to-day that the Rev. Frederick Percival Farrar, whose appointment as chaplain to the King and honorary chaplain to Queen Alexandra, was cancelled by the King without any reason for the step being made public, has gone to Canada. He probably is traveling incognito, and the name of the steamer on which he sailed is not known.

The cancelling of Mr. Farrar's court appointment is followed by no official explanation of the mystery. One evening paper referred to the fact that he married an American, but did not intimate that his foreign marriage is in any way connected with his removal from the court chaplaincy. It is stated here that Mr. Farrar was asked to resign, but refused to do so.

It is known that nothing but some very serious delinquency would have induced the King to take the strong step of publicly disgracing him.

The Bishop of Norwich, in which diocese the accused pastor's parish of Sandringham is located, is now investigating charges of immorality and insubordination. But when an attempt was made to obtain the reasons for the young clergyman's retirement it was stated that the Rev. Farrar had gone away and had left no address.

It is known that following the allegations against him, Mr. Farrar resigned his pastorate of Sandringham. That parish was the favorite residence of King Edward and Queen Alexandra, it will be remembered.

The shattering of the young man's career is the more startling because his marriage last July to the interesting sister of the American novelist was one of the social events of London which attracted international interest.

It was attended by many prominent London people and the leaders of the American colony here.

Mrs. Farrar has made many friends since her marriage, and has been well received. She has her family's love for literature, and is considered an extremely good conversationalist, having a bright mind. She is the daughter of the late L. Clark Davis, of Philadelphia, who was a well known editor.

Scalp Itch Goes

Dandruff Germs are Responsible, Parisian Sage Will Kill Them.

It's the little dandruff germs growing way down at the root of your hair that are causing that itchy misery.

To suffer from scalp itches is to suffer from a germ disease.

PARISIAN SAGE often stops the itching over-night, and not only does that, but used for two weeks is guaranteed to guarantee, mind you, to kill the dandruff germ and stop falling hair—ask Tragle Co.

PARISIAN SAGE nourishes the hair roots, that's why it often grows hair abundantly before the hair root is dead. That's why it puts lustre and radiance into dull, faded hair. Large bottle 50 cents at Tragle Co. and druggists everywhere. Girl with Auburn hair on every carton and bottle.

TOWN OF TRIPOLI IS UNDER SIEGE

Italians No Further Advanced Than on Day After They Landed.

Paris, November 23.—That the town of Tripoli is virtually besieged by Turkey, and that it is in no better situation, is the opinion of a correspondent of the Turkish forces who has succeeded in joining the Ottoman forces near Zouagher. He telegraphs regarding the Turkish side of the war, under date of November 12, and says: "It is certain that after a month and a half's war, after large expenditures and serious losses, the Italians are no further advanced than on the day following their disembarkation. If the Turkish forces are inferior in numbers to the Italians, they make up in confidence what they lack in numbers."

"I expected to find disorder and discouragement. On the contrary, everywhere I met order, discipline and contentment. Patient and ready for everything, the Turkish soldier is accepting all without complaint. If he suffers, he knows it is for the empire of Islam, while the Arab knows that if he dies, Paradise with Mohammed will be his."

The correspondent is unable to divulge the numbers or plans of the Turks, merely saying that their foreign military attaches must have made helpful observations.

COL. ROOSEVELT RAPS LYNCHING

Declares Delays in Court Machinery Amount to Mis-carriage of Justice.

New York, November 23.—Declaring that local delays often result in exhibitions of lynch law, and demanding that criminal assault upon women be made a capital crime, for which there must be an immediate trial, Theodore Roosevelt, in the current number of the Outlook, to-day attacked lynching in unmeasured terms.

"The repeated race riots and lynchings that have occurred in the Northern States during the last decade must have convinced the least observant that neither race feeling nor the tendency to lynch is in a sense peculiar to the South. It is a horrible thing, for which the whole country must bear responsibility."

"But mere denunciation of the crime of a mob amounts to little or nothing. We must recognize what the facts are that excite the mob to act. Dreadful though it is for the mob spirit to be aroused in a community by such a crime, it would be an even worse calamity if the community did not feel the fury of indignation which produces the mob spirit. There is no question that there are serious breakdowns in the administration of justice in America."

"Slowness in deciding cases, readiness to admit appeals, the subordination of justice to legal technicalities, the irritating delays in getting the machinery of the law into motion, and the utterly improper attention paid by the courts to the shames of lawyers in invoking technicalities—all of these result in frequent miscarriages of justice and in delays which, if long enough, amount, especially in their effect upon the public, to an absolute miscarriage of justice."

GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER

Edwin H. Hancock Killed Two People With Automobile.

Taunton, Mass., November 23.—Edwin H. Hancock was found guilty of manslaughter to-day as the result of an automobile accident in which Miss Lottie Thomas and George Hunt were killed at Taunton, last April. Sentence was postponed.

Charles W. H. Day, who was in the automobile with Hancock, was acquitted of a similar charge. Both men are prominent residents of Attleboro.

OFFICERS RE-ELECTED.

State Library Association in Session at Durham.

Durham, N. C., November 23.—The State Library Association, in session here two days, adjourned this evening with a social session, after having re-elected James P. Bredehoe, of Trinity College, president; John Sprunt Hill, vice-president; Miss Martha Rosenthal, of Raleigh, treasurer, and Miss Mary B. Palmer, of Charlotte, secretary.

The association decided to become a member of the National Library Association and appointed a committee to formulate plans for entering it. It recommends a union of city and county libraries and enjoined preservation of all records, which will clear up so many historical records now in dispute.

TWO BIRDMEN OF ARMY

LIEUTENANTS ROY C. KIRTLAND AND THOMAS D. MILLING, ARMY AVIATORS.

River. Latest estimates place the number of victims at thirty. Owing to the floods it was impossible to rescue passengers who succeeded in climbing through the windows before the car went to the bottom, and who clung to the roof of one of the cars throughout the day, while hundreds of people lined the shores, unable to get to their assistance. At nightfall, however, a detachment of military engineers arrived with pontoons and succeeded in taking off eleven persons who had been clinging to the wreckage over which swept a torrent.

In addition to these the conductor was saved and the engineer, who caught hold of a pig carried along by the flood, and was towed shore by the animal.

The grandmason local deputy declares that he called attention to the weakness of the bridge years ago, but the administration claims that the structure had been tested recently and found to be quite sound. The break is attributed solely to the floods, and the undermining of the pier could not be foreseen.

SUCCESSFUL FAIR IN CHESTERFIELD

First County Exposition, but a Starter for Greater Things. The Premiums Awarded.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Chesterfield, Va., November 23.—The Chesterfield county fair, which was held at the courthouse several days ago was a success despite unfavorable weather conditions. A large crowd was in attendance. The Fair Association, through individual subscription, had erected a large shed to house the exhibits. The attractiveness of the fair was due to the numerous exhibits entered in separate classes, as follows: Corn, tobacco, vegetables, poultry, horses, hogs and cattle. In the women's department, fancy work, canned goods, pickles and preserves, and large displays of baked foods were in evidence.

Premiums on corn, awarded to best yield in the six different districts, were as follows:

BRYCE IS SLATED TO SUCCEED GREY

Foreign Secretary's Resignation Expected After His Awaited Exposition.

London, November 23.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey, secretary of foreign affairs, will retire from the Cabinet after his eagerly awaited exposition on foreign relations on November 27, in the house of Commons, and that James Bryce, ambassador to the United States, will succeed him.

The resignation of the foreign secretary almost certainly will be handed to the prime minister should any lack of confidence be shown in his policy during the debate which will follow his statement Monday.

Sir Edward Grey, who, during the earlier years of his occupancy of the foreign office, received the almost unanimous support of all parties, recently has been the object of continuous attack, not from the opposition, but by members of his own party, or rather the extreme radical element in that party.

The secrecy with which diplomatic negotiations have been carried on has aroused the ire of the Radicals, who lately have received some support from the more moderate Liberals. The disclosures regarding the Anglo-German conversations with respect to Morocco and statements that these two countries were on the verge of war have given the Radicals another opening.

The Radicals favor an Anglo-German understanding, and accuse Sir Edward Grey of balking their efforts in this direction, either by his own design or through the influence of anti-German officials in the foreign office.

James Bryce is the man considered most likely to be his successor, as he would be supported by the entire party, as he was when the Unionists attacked him for the part he took in the reciprocity negotiations between Canada and the United States.

SULLMAN'S SON

MAKES DEFENSE OF GOVERNMENT

Birmingham, Ala., November 23.—In defense of the present representative government of this country, Representative Oscar W. Underwood, Democratic majority leader in the House, spoke to-night at a dinner given in his honor by the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce.

"It is proposed by some," said Mr. Underwood, "that we shall in part abandon the representative government enacted by a system that in the end would establish a direct democracy, when the ultimate powers to make laws would be placed directly in the hands of all the people and the independent judiciary, intended to protect the constitutional guarantees of individual liberty, would become subservient to the will of the majority through political compulsion."

Mr. Underwood declared there was far less danger of enacting hasty, ill-considered legislation under the present than under the proposed initiative and referendum system. He admitted that the latter scheme had worked out satisfactorily in some local matters when a distinct issue that was clearly understood had been presented to the people. He contended, however, that the people's representatives were better able to protect their interests on national matters.

It was the belief of the speaker that Congress always would respond ultimately to the enlightened and matured sentiment of the people. He cited the railroad rate legislation, pure food laws, and publicity of campaign contributions measures as instance of this response.

"Should I stop to criticize our government," continued Mr. Underwood, "I would say that the people suffer far more from the failure to enforce existing laws than they do from the lack of proper legislation. The people should drive from the places of power and responsibility the unfaithful servant and elect those who will be faithful to the trust imposed upon them. The masses of the people are far better judges of men than they are of measures, and are far more likely to select an honest man than an honest measure."
